NORTHERN TRIBUNE.

THURSDAY, JULY 2, 1885.

THE CITY.

Trade with W. & A. McArthur.

Fred Bunker arrived home from Olivet college Friday evening.

J. C. Taggart is having large trade in connection with his bakery business. Good work secures trade in any business.

Don't forget the concert on Wednesday evening of next week. A fine programme has been prepared and there should be a full house.

Miss Bertha Bunker left on the City of Mackinac Tuesday afternoon for Pennsylvania, where she will make quite an extended visit with relatives.

Miss Simons who had been teaching school at Manistique, stepped over in Cheboygan a few days, the guest of Mrs. A. P. Newton, on her way to her home in Lansing.

A slight break in the gang at the mill of the Cheboygan Lumber Co. occurred last Friday forenoon. Messrs. Murray & Rich repaired it and it is successfully at work again.

Entertainments of all kinds have been very numerous in Cheboygan of late, but our people cannot afford to miss the concert of Miss Carrie Magoffin on Wednesday evening next.

The fiscal year closed Tuesday and yet many who thought they had their political calling and election assured with the expiring days of the year are still longing for the promised land.

Misses Eliza and Kate McDonald returned home from the State Normal school at Ypsilanti, last Thursday evening. Their many friends are glad to have them back.

The musical concert by Miss Carrie Magoffin, assisted by Cheboygan's favorite local talent on Wednesday evening of next week, promises to be a most successful affair and we would advise all to secure their seats early.

The steamboat service changes for Michigan permit the postmasters at Cheboygan and Detroit to exchange mail by safe and suitable steamboats three times per week from July 1, 1885, to the close of navigation, 1885, without expense to the department.

P. M. Dorman has rented the stand formerly occupied by Will VanValkenburg as a fish market, and will keep at all times a stock of choice butter, eggs and vegetables. The freezer in the building is just the thing for keeping his butter in good condition.

Post & Mills received a new flag Friday morning ordered especially for display on the Fourth, but they run it up on the staff on top of their handsome business block and allowed it to fly to breeze that day. Numerous were the enquiries as to why it was hoisted.

A strawberry festival will be held in the Riggsville school house Tuesday, July 7th. The object of the festival is to raise money to assist in paying the salary of Rev. Warner, pastor of the Riggsville church. In addition, to a fine feast a most enjoyable time socially may be anticipated.

W. W. Strohn returned home last Saturday from the Spanish river timber region, taking passage at Sault Ste Marie on the Messenger. He reports vast quantities of standing pine in that section, with considerable rock elm and says the streams are numerous and plenty of water for running out logs.

During Mrs. Dowling's absence from home last Friday, a cat made a raid on the bird cage after their sweet singing canary. The cage was knocked down and the bird escaped, but was afterward captured and returned by some boys much to the delight of Mrs. Dowling. The bird was so badly frightened that it refused to sing for some days. Previous to the attack it was one of the best wardlarks in town.

The marriage of Miss Ella Jordan and Mr. E. D. Brooks, of San Francisco, California, took place at the residence of the bride's mother last Thursday afternoon in the presence of the relatives and a few intimate friends and former schoolmates of the fair bride. Numerous elegant presents were bestowed upon the bride and warm congratulations extended. The happy couple departed that evening for the Golden Gate where they will make their future home.

Lemonade stands promise to be thick on the Fourth.

Elsewhere we give the new time card of the G. R. & I. railroad, which went into effect June 21st.

Reserved seats for Miss Magoffin's concert will be on sale at Cooper's drug store commencing Monday next.

The Messenger will give an excursion to the Island on the 4th of July, leaving at 2 p. m. and returning at 6 p. m.

Those who wish to participate in the games and races on the Fourth should make their entries at the drug store of Sutherland & Forsyth as early as possible.

J. C. Taggart has opened a branch store on Third street. He is now making a specialty of ice cream and is putting the same up in fancy moulds for parties.

By the death of C. R. Mabley, which occurred Tuesday morning, Detroit loses one of her most prominent and enterprising citizens and the state one of its most liberal contributors to charitable enterprises, a man universally esteemed by his vast army of employees.

The cup for the prize in the rifle contest on the Fourth between the Cheboygan Gun club team and a team from Fort Mackinac, arrived this morning, and is on exhibition in the window of A. L. Fexer's jewelry store. It is a beauty.

Mrs. Bartlett has leased the Union House and will open it July 4th as a $1.00 per day house. She is a most excellent cook and with Ralph Brown as manager, the house will get its share of the trade. See advertisement in another column.

There was a man once on a time, who tho't him wondrous wise. He swore by all the fabled gods he'd never advertise. But the goods were advertised ere long, and thereby hangs a tale: the ad. was set in nonpareil, and headed "Sheriff's sale."—Cribbed.

The newspapers of this section have been very liberal in their notices of our coming Fourth of July celebration, for all of which the people of Cheboygan are grateful and would be pleased to have the entire press of Northern Michigan with them on that occasion.

A brilliant meteor passed over Cheboygan shortly after ten o'clock Tuesday night. It was so brilliant that it threw the bright moon completely in the shade, while it lasted. It appeared like a huge electric light, and when it burst displayed all the hues of the rainbow.

G. W. Bunker & Co. have got their stock of crockery and glassware in shape and intend opening their store to the public at 8 p. m. this evening. They have a nice stock of goods and making a specialty of the crockery business will enable them to carry a full line at all times.

A. L. Fexer has manufactured six very handsome medals to be given as prizes for the boat races on the 4th. The medal for the first prize in the single scull race is especially striking and does credit to Mr. Fexer's taste and skill as a workman. The medals together with other prizes will be exhibited in Mr. Fexer's show window.

With this number ends volume 10 of the NORTHERN TRIBUNE and next week the paper will enter upon its eleventh year. The paper has a larger subscription list than since it was established and is enjoying a steady growth. Its patronage was never before so large in every department, and for this endorsement of the paper and the work executed in the job department, we cannot but feel grateful to the citizens of Cheboygan and surrounding country. The office is better prepared than ever to do work in the best style, having added largely to the material and increased our force of efficient workmen.

The school taught by G. S. Moore in district No. 2 township of Beaupre closed a very successful year by a grand picnic in Sammon's grove, near the fair grounds, last Saturday. A very interesting programme was presented, consisting of readings, recitations and singing. Prof. Phillips, of Toledo, O., was present and favored those present with music on his violin, and sports and games were indulged in and a happy time enjoyed. The patrons of the school congratulated Mr. Moore very heartily upon his success as a teacher. Mr. Moore left Saturday night for Fenton, where he will spend his vacation.

Clement advertises ten styles of $3.00 shoes this week.

Miss Jessie Forsyth returned to her home in Bay City on Tuesday last.

Robert Robinson has taken the contract of bringing out Mattoon's drive of logs in Maple river, and is getting them down in good shape.

The Mary entered upon the inland route yesterday in connection with the Northern Bell, and had five through passengers for Petoskey for her first trip.

The ladies of the Congregational church will occupy the store formerly occupied by Geo. E. Fax for their strawberry, ice cream and lunch room on the Fourth of July.

The hose companies have been practicing faithfully for the contest on the Fourth and all have been making good time. An interesting and exciting contest may be expected.

The Opera House should be crowded to its utmost capacity this evening to listen to the Madame Fry Concert Company, as the entertainment is for the benefit of a worthy local object.

Cheboygan Legion, No. 3, of Select Knights, have leased Kessler's hall for a term of years and will hereafter meet there. The next regular meeting will be held Thursday evening, July 9th.

Rev. A. W. Westgate was called to Petoskey on business last week and was unable to get back until the first of this week, consequently there were no services at the Congregational church last Sunday.

The Minnie M. will leave for Sault Ste Marie at midnight to-morrow night. She does this in order to reach Sault Ste Marie early in the day on the Fourth to fill engagements made for the day at that place.

The Michigan Exchange is now having a daily bill of fare printed at the TRIBUNE job rooms. The bill shows that the Exchange is setting an excellent table and we are glad to know is receiving a liberal patronage.

W. S. Smith has taken the management of the Mullet Lake House and already has several guests. The hotel is one of the finest in northern Michigan and its location one of the pleasantest among all of the summer resorts of the north.

Mrs. Spence Hill has removed her fruit and confectionery store and restaurant, to the Farrell block and has her rooms nicely fitted up and well stocked with goods. Her dining room is large and pleasant, and meals will be served at all hours.

Remember the concert at the Opera House this evening by Madame Fry's Concert Company. It will be one of the finest entertainments ever given in Cheboygan. The press all over the country, wherever Madame Fry and her talented daughters have appeared are unanimous in the highest encomiums of their efforts.

The City of Alpena could not get up to her dock yesterday morning on account of logs and a raft of timber blocking the channel. The tug Cuyler run down and took of the passengers and baggage and landed them at McArthur's wharf. The logs had been taken care of by the time she got back and she came in all right.

Charles H. Miner and Nellie M. Haxton were married in Detroit last Thursday, June 25th, 1885. Mr. Miner was a former resident of Cheboygan, being employed in the office of our cotemporary and is well and favorably known by a majority of our citizens, all of whom will join with the TRIBUNE in wishing he and bride all the pleasure this life affords.

The Washington correspondent of the Detroit Free Press says: "Congressman Fisher, of the Bay City District, is quickly urging forward appointments in his district and there is every promise now that the result of his labors will soon be made known." There are several in Cheboygan standing with their mouths wide open ready to catch the plums when they fall in this portion of the district.

Miss Marie Carlyle on roller skates, and Miss Ethel Vokes on the bicycle appeared at the rink Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and gave exhibitions of their skill. Both proved themselves experts in their lines and executed the most difficult movements with a grace and skill that elicited the admiration of all present and won for them hearty applause. The attendance both evenings was large.

G. L. Waldorf, of Indian River, was in town yesterday.

Chas. S. Hampton, of Harbor Springs, delivers the oration at Adrian on the Fourth.

Owing to a press of other matter we have been obliged to omit our usual marine news.

The excursion on the Messenger Saturday evening to Spectacle Reef was well attended.

J. M. Featherly, editor of the Au Sable Monitor, was a welcome caller at the TRIBUNE office Monday.

Secure your seats for the Gaylord Band Concert at Cooper's drug store in advance, and avoid the rush.

Madame Fry Concert Company at the Opera House this evening. A rare treat in store for all who may attend.

Our business men should at least close their stores from 1 p. m. until 6, on the Fourth, even if they cannot do so for a longer time.

The Northwestern Hospital is now fully completed and furnished and next Saturday will be open for the inspection of the public.

Mrs. O. B. Weed and Miss Mary Newton her sister, who had been visiting her at Manistique, arrived on the Minnie M. Friday evening.

Don't forget the concert by the Gaylord City Band on the evening of the Fourth. It will be a fitting close to the day's exercises.

The three heavy weights of our police force aggregate 726 pounds in weight. When all three sit down on one prisoner he knows they are there.

The Detroit evening papers are now received in Cheboygan early the next morning. So much for the night train on the Michigan Central.

John McQuig returned last week from his tour into the upper peninsula and portions of Wisconsin. He says he did not strike a town in his trip as good for business as Cheboygan.

Chas. H. Eby has purchased the bakery branch of Melville Bros. business. Mr. Eby is a fine workman and will keep his goods on sale at several of the grocery and will be sold by Melville Bros. at their place of business on Third street.

A drummer tried to sell H. Chambers a lot of fans for advertising purposes, but Mr. Chambers believes in putting his advertisements where they will do him the most good and hence takes a column in the TRIBUNE. All will be interested in his ad.

James F. Moloney & Bro., are thoughtful and considerate. Knowing that the Fourth of July could not be duly celebrated without something to drink and realizing the usual financial condition of printers was not such as to enable them to invest very extensively, they kindly left at the TRIBUNE office an assorted case of their choice soft drinks. It has been duly sampled, and the unanimous verdict is that for a refreshing beverage, the summer drinks manufactured by these gentlemen cannot be excelled. Everybody keeps them for sale and if you do not desire to take our word for it try them and see how it is for yourself.

Grand Concert.

Miss Carrie M. Magoffin is preparing a programme for a grand concert to be given at the Opera House next Wednesday evening. She will be assisted by the leading local talent of Cheboygan, including Misses Carrie Davis and Mamie Kirtland, two prime favorites of Cheboygan who will be home in time to take part. The following is the programme and from it our citizens can see what a rare treat is in store for them. Miss Magoffin is one of our most accomplished musicians and has always manifested a willingness to contribute to the success of entertainments for local benefits and is entitled to a substantial benefit on this occasion, and we have no doubt our citizens, by a large attendance, will show their appreciation of Miss Magoffin's valuable services in the past:
